

The Washington Post | JANUARY 15, 2016

Weekend

Going Out Guides

COURTESY OF JORGE TACLA AND CRISTIN TIERNEY GALLERY

"Hidden Identities," an exhibition of paintings and drawings by Chilean artist Jorge Tacla, is on display at the Art Museum of the Americas through Feb. 3.

ART MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAS "Hidden Identities," through Feb. 3. Paintings and drawings by Jorge Tacla explore the mutability of identity, collective memory, the physical and psychological fallout of trauma and the potential for change. Open Tuesday-Sunday 10 to 5. 201 18th St. NW. 202-370-0147. museum.oas.org. Free.