'Do It' in Sharjah – Your chance to make new art

Published Monday, January 25, 2016

Sharjah Art Foundation’s new project ‘Do It’ is an innovative approach to help integrate individuals and community to make new works of art.

The project, which launched on Saturday, January 23, will remain open to public until April 2016.

More than 60 artists from across the region have written instructions that anyone can use to make a new work of art.

Public is invited to join in the workshops, performances and thought-provoking activities on one of the many Open Days, scheduled over the course of the exhibition.
The exhibition is free and open to the public.
Schools, universities and communities across the UAE will be collaborating with the Sharjah Arts Foundation to make it a success.
Several Open Days are scheduled over the course of the exhibition.

Schools, universities and communities across the UAE, including Ajman Centre for Rehabilitation, American University of Sharjah, Al Tamkeen Centre, Emirates Fine Arts Society, Sharjah City for Humanitarian Services, Sharjah International Book Fair, and University of Sharjah will be collaborating with the Sharjah Arts Foundation to make it a success.

Co-curated by Sharjah Art Foundation Director Hoor Al Qasimi and Serpentine Gallery co-Director Hans Ulrich Obrist,
CRISTIN TIERNEY

‘Do It’ is a new iteration of the ongoing do it publication and exhibition project originally founded and curated by Obrist in 1993.
